DOCTORAL
Penn State Harrisburg is an undergraduate college and graduate school of The Pennsylvania State University, one of the nation’s largest and most widely recognized academic institutions. The campus enrolls 5,000 students and offers associate, bachelor’s, master’s, and doctoral degree programs.

THE COLLEGE
The college also offers the first two years of study leading to more than 200 baccalaureate majors offered throughout Penn State. At the transfer level, Penn State Harrisburg serves students from all Penn State campuses and from community colleges and other accredited colleges and universities.

Reputation is Penn State Harrisburg’s hallmark – nationally accredited programs, award-winning faculty, and the resources of a world-class research university. We are Penn State in the Capital Region.

The college’s academic units are divided into five schools: Behavioral Sciences and Education; Business Administration; Humanities; Public Affairs; and Science, Engineering, and Technology.

Penn State Harrisburg’s Office of Continuing Education answers lifelong training and education needs with a range of programs including credit and noncredit courses, certification programs, specialized training, and professional and on-site workforce development.

STUDENT HOUSING
On-campus housing for more than 690 students including single-, double-, or triple-occupancy apartment-style housing; double-occupancy suite-style housing for first-year students; and single-occupancy apartment-style housing for upper class students. The suite-style residence hall for first-year students was the first LEED (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design)-certified residential building within Penn State and is Silver LEED certified.

LIBRARY
As part of the University Libraries, Penn State Harrisburg’s Library houses more than 300,000 volumes and provides students with access to more than 750 databases, over 500,000 online journals and over 6 million print volumes. The 115,000 square-foot building features: seating for approximately 1,000 users, a Library instruction room and other classrooms, group study rooms, public access computers, and the 24/7 Lion Study Space.

ATHLETICS
An NCAA Division III member, Penn State Harrisburg offers 16 varsity sports and competes in the United East Athletic Conference. Indoor and outdoor track and field compete in the New Jersey Athletic Conference (NJAC).

SCHOLARSHIPS
Scholarships are available to incoming and returning students. About 80 percent of Penn State Harrisburg students receive some form of financial aid.
