Penn State Harrisburg is an undergraduate college and graduate school of The Pennsylvania State University, one of the nation’s largest and most widely recognized academic institutions. The campus enrolls nearly 5,000 students and offers more than 65 associate, bachelor’s, master’s, and doctoral degree programs.

THE COLLEGE
The college also offers the first two years of study leading to more than 160 baccalaureate majors offered throughout Penn State. At the transfer level, Penn State Harrisburg serves students from all Penn State campuses and from community colleges and other accredited colleges and universities.

Reputation is Penn State Harrisburg’s hallmark – nationally accredited programs, award-winning faculty, and the resources of a world-class research university. We are Penn State in the Capital Region.

The college’s academic units are divided into five schools: Behavioral Sciences and Education; Business Administration; Humanities; Public Affairs; and Science, Engineering, and Technology.

Penn State Harrisburg’s Office of Continuing Education answers lifelong training and education needs with a range of programs including credit and noncredit courses, certification programs, specialized training, and professional and on-site workforce development.

STUDENT HOUSING
On-campus housing for more than 690 students including single-, double-, or triple-occupancy apartment-style housing; double-occupancy suite-style housing for first-year students; and single-occupancy apartment-style housing for upper class students. The suite-style residence hall for first-year students was the first LEED (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design)-certified residential building within Penn State and is Silver LEED certified.

LIBRARY
The three-story, 115,000-square-foot, technologically advanced academic research library includes more than 300,000 volumes and 400 journals. With access to more than 750 databases and over 110,000 online full-text journals through the University Libraries, the facility provides extensive support to resident and online users.

ATHLETICS
An NCAA Division III member, Penn State Harrisburg offers 16 varsity sports, and will compete in the North Eastern Athletic Conference starting in 2019.

SCHOLARSHIPS
Scholarships are available to incoming and returning students. About 80 percent of Penn State Harrisburg students receive some form of financial aid.
